The Welsh Tenor serenades your heart and stirs your soul, with his silken voice, passionate sensibility, and generously talented, highly accomplished musical collective. Together they weave an enchanted spell of mesmerizing classics and surprising fresh intonations, interpretations and entertainment choices. Gwyndaf has recorded a self-titled CD and between tours has developed the Art Fusion Project; an exquisite musical and theatrical evening, thrilling audiences in the region of his current home base in Toronto, Canada. He has also competed and performed around the world, investing classical arias, love songs, Mario Lanza favourites and Welsh folk music with the drama and compassion of his ruminating tenor voice.
